JAPANESE CLAIM INVOLVED

Assistant Secretary of State Day Declares That Mr. Sewall Did Not specify the Amount of This Indemnity-Japan Said to Have Protested, but No One Is Uneasy.

The State Department was stirred up penerally over the report in two New York papers and the Washington Times that Unisted Sewall had set a price on the damages due Japan from Hawgii. The news was given for what it was worth, as is was in circulation about the State Deparament, and the department gives, as a peneral rule, what it thinks proper from the further detail was given that the to be indemnity classified by Japan could be paid off with $100,000.

I sidge Day, First Assistant Secretary of State, called some of the newspaper paternity together yesterday alternoon in other to officially deny this teport. He was that Minister Sewall had made no such statement to the State Department. There appears to bave been a good reason to denying the story so promptly, and the denial is to singular contrast to the imsolveness of these State Department of while when it comes, say, to Cuban af table. The State Department, whether the statement be true of not, and the denial of Judge Day may be mily at very pardonable piece of diplomatic combiner, was put in the actitude of interfering in the affairs of Japan and Hawaii, and of giving away a Japanese state secret, because, so far, there has been no perified amount of indemnity. In fact, Japan has been credited with a plan to selve certain floating Hawaiian property and convert it into the amount of damages

There was an undercurrent of suspiciou steeday that the representatives of Japan here had asked the State Department to promptly-dime.

The northet yesterday was fregular, i might almost be called erratic in its move ments. There was a marked absence of support and a continuance of liquidation by holders of long stocks during all the morning hours, which somewhat nullified the effect of fairly good London buying. It would indeed seem that stop orders were forced out on the way down, and that the bear traders were offered every opportunity to increase the outstanding short accounts London purchased stocks to a fair extent a the decline, and a further circumstance of an encouraging character was that the exchange market was weaker, the de sering rate being austeady at around 4.55. In the last hour the market was stronger and fairly active at the improvement

It is said that the present holdings of American stocks by London are the smallest in many vents-fifteen or more. During all the bull movement the Londoners have been selling at every advance.
